

I am against allowing the banking industry to do telephone soliciting to individuals on Indiana's no call list. I'm suppose to be on the list, but I continue to get calls from predictive dialing devices and then there is no one on the line. It is very irritating to get up and answer the phone only to have it hang up because they weren't ready to solicitate me for something I didn't want to begin with.